

Course Equivalency Form
BS/BA-BSN Program

Please list the course information that you believe is equivalent to the WVU courses listed below. Include the subject code and course number, ex. ENGL 101.

|                          | College or University Name | Credits Awarded | Grade Obtained |
|--------------------------|----------------------------|-----------------|----------------|
| English Composition I    | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| English Composition II   | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Biology                  | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Chemistry                | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Human Anatomy            | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Human Physiology         | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Microbiology             | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Statistics               | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Introductory Psychology  | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Developmental Psychology | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| Human Nutrition          | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |
| College Algebra          | Institution                | Credit          | Grade          |

Requirements prior to enrollment:

1. A baccalaureate degree from a regionally accredited college/university with a cumulative and prerequisite GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale.
2. Completion of each of the following prerequisite courses listed above with a grade of "C" or better

Last Name  First Name  Middle Name

Comments